

SLC English Grid

Open your window or sit in the garden. Use your senses. What can you see, hear and smell? Write a sentence for each. Can you use the conjunctions and/but/so?	Choose an object from your house. Can you think of and list adjectives which would describe it?	Who is your favourite book or TV character? Describe your character using adjectives and similes where possible.	Sit in your favourite place whether it's in your house or outside. What can you see? Use prepositions to tell me what you see. Don't forget to add adjectives for description.
Try to read all or some of a new book every day. Can you make a list of the title and author so I can have a look. Did you have a favourite book? What was the most interesting part?	Look through all your books at home. Can you sort them into fiction and non-fiction. Can you list them in alphabetical order?	Open one of your favourite books and read the first page. Can you continue writing the story and change it slightly?	Create a story mountain. Think of your characters, setting, (build up) problem, (resolution) and ending
Using an old cereal box, can you make a setting from a traditional tale or any other story? Will I be able to guess the story?	Make a den. This could be outside or inside. Can you read a book inside at night time with a torch?	Write a list of all your family and friends names, don't forget what names need? Can you sort them into the shortest to longest words?	Write the alphabet. How many objects can you think of that begin with that letter in your house?
Write a poem. Can you use the word 'SUMMER' and create an acrostic poem?	Using the fronted adverbials: Quickly, Silently, Happily, Joyfully, Sadly Can you complete the sentences? Remember the , comes after the fronted adverbial!	AWHITEBUS Write as many interesting sentences as you can using subordinating conjunctions. Can you extend them using a coordinating conjunction? e.g Although I was sad, I went out to play for it was very sunny.	Write a sentence of 3 for description and action e.g. I could see a rabbit jumping, I could hear a cow mooing and the birds were tweeting in the trees.

Please have fun and complete as many as you can.